Corrected Annual Regulatory Plan
2025-2026
March 16, 2026

Pursuant to section 120.74(4), Florida Statutes, the State Board of Administration of Florida corrects this Annual Regulatory Plan to include rule 19-14.001, Florida Administrative Code, in Part Four as a rule that will be reviewed in 2025-2026 as part of the five-year rule review required by section 120.5435, Florida Statutes (2025).

Part One

Part One of the Plan addresses each law enacted or amended during the 2025 Legislative Session that creates or modifies the duties or authority of the State Board of Administration of Florida. § 120.74(1)(a), Fla. Stat. (2025).

Law enacted or amended in the last 12 months	Florida Statute modified or created	Is rulemaking necessary to implement the law?	If necessary, has Notice of Rule Development been published?	Expected Date for Notice of Proposed Rule	If rulemaking is not necessary, explain
Ch. 2025-192	§ 215.4725, F.S. § 265.286, F.S. § 287.135, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	The statute relates to prohibited investments of companies that boycott Israel. The SBA is already implementing the statute. Rulemaking is not needed to include the changes.
Ch. 2025-195	§ 119.071, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	The bill adds additional classifications of people whose personal information is exempt from public records. The SBA has updated internal forms to include this information. Rulemaking is not required.

Ch. 2025-85	§ 112.3131, F.S. § 112.317, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	These statutes create prohibitions on public employees and public officers relating to misrepresenting military experience. These statutes are not specific to the SBA and do not require rulemaking by the SBA.
Ch. 2025-213	Ch. 542, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	These statutes relate to employee agreements and they apply to employers generally and are not specific to the SBA. No rulemaking is required by the SBA.
Ch. 2025-07	N/A	No	N/A	N/A	This bill requires agencies to update geographical materials to refer to the Gulf of America. It applies to all state agencies and is not specific to the SBA. It does not require rulemaking by the SBA.
Ch. 2025-206	§ 215.5552, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	This bill repeals the statute that created the Florida Optional Reinsurance Assistance Program. No rules exist related to this statute; thus, there is nothing the SBA needs to repeal related to this bill.
Ch. 2025-198	Appropriations Bill	No	N/A	N/A	This is self-executing. The funding for the Florida Reinsurance to Assist Policyholders Program is reduced. There are no rules related to this Program, so no rules need to be amended.
Ch. 2025-207	§ 215.98, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	This bill is self-executing. The bill requires the Chief Financial Officer to transfer $250 million from the General Revenue Fund to the SBA for the Debt Reduction Program, created within the SBA to reduce the state's tax-supported debt. The SBA will invest these monies as authorized in section 215.69, Florida Statutes, and in accordance with Investment Portfolio Guidelines applicable to Debt Service Funds.

Ch. 2025-189	§ 120.52, F.S. § 120.536, F.S. § 120.54, F.S. § 120.541, F.S. § 120.5435, F.S. § 120.545, F.S. § 120.55, F.S. § 120.74, F.S.	No	N/A	N/A	This bill makes changes to the Florida Administrative Procedure Act that impact all agencies. The SBA is complying with the changes, but the changes do not require rulemaking by the SBA.

Part Two

Part Two of the Plan addresses those laws that are not otherwise included in Part One that the SBA intends to implement by rulemaking before July 1, 2026. § 120.74(1)(b), Fla. Stat. (2025).
